

One-Octave Scales & Arpeggios for VIOLIN

This sheet of music contains 15 staves, each representing a different key signature. The first staff is in C major (no sharps or flats). The next six staves are in major keys: D major (one sharp), E major (two sharps), F# major (three sharps), G major (one sharp), A major (two sharps), and B major (three sharps). The last six staves are in minor keys: Bb minor (two flats), Ab minor (three flats), Gb minor (three flats and one sharp), F minor (two flats), Eb minor (three flats), and Db minor (four flats). Each staff contains a scale and its corresponding arpeggio, starting on the first line of the staff and ending on the first space. The music is written in a single system with a treble clef and a common time signature.